181
182 A: Brian? Brian? (Unintelligible). So what - so what's going on? You're saying 183 you fired a 9 millimeter into the ceiling? Oh, my gosh, Brian. Where's (Jim)?
184 Are you alone? So what's been going on? Why do you have to go now? So,
185 Listen (unintelligible). I need to know (unintelligible). Are you on 186 something? Are you drinking? No, I don't care. I'm not offering judgment. I 187 just, you know... No, you haven't taken anything. And, no you haven't been 188 drinking. Okay. How did you get... (unintelligible) Having a really bad day.
189 (unintelligible) gun out? What happened? Okay Oh. Well listen, you called 190 me. I wasn't sure if (unintelligible). Right. Okay. So if I'm right then
191 (unintelligible). Okay, is there a round in the chamber? Brian? I know. I
192 have seen you when you were (unintelligible). Brian? (Unintelligible). But I
193 am worried about you. Take the round out of the chamber. Do it for me.
194 (Unintelligible) talking for a reason. Brian (unintelligible) the last 195 conversation. (Unintelligible). That, just needs to remind you of that special
196 place, outside of that hole. It doesn't have to (unintelligible) this way. It
197 (unintelligible) gets better. Okay? But I'm worrying because you're telling me
198 you have a gun you fired. You've got a round in the chamber and won't take 199 it out. And - hm? What? You're saying you won't take it out? (Unintelligible).
200 What? Brian? You're going to what? Brian? I don't know what you're talking 201 about. What do you mean you're going back?.What's your uh... What's your 202 best memory of being in my office? (Unintelligible) in my office? Yeah. So,
203 tell me one of yours. You have pretty vivid memories (unintelligible) there
204 don't you? I have a lot of them. Then tell me why they're yours. Okay. Oh.
205 Good. (Unintelligible). You need to go back where, Brian? I'm not sure what 206 you're talkin' about. Okay. Well, (unintelligible) much better. Yes, yeah.
207 Brian, I remember when you walked in to my office saying you had gotten out
208 of the military. And, I said, oh my god, you look like came out of a sauna.
209 And, you felt like you came (unintelligible). Remember how good that felt?
210 Felt good. Felt clear. You can't go back there, because it's unfair. Yeah, I'll 211 help you. You know I will, if you'll let me.
